

Presentations and Workshop that SURJ Marin has offered:

Difficult Conversations - practicing difficult conversations with friends and family about race

How to Show Up - allyship for events and actions led by BIPOC partners

Undoing Racism - given by Paul Kivel based on his book with the same name

Healing Into Action - a three part series focusing on internal work/ awareness, learning about how racism works and taking collective action

Solidarity not Saviors - allyship in immigrant justice work

Reparations - defining and discussing what reparations can look like

Spiritual Costs of Racism - developed for the Unitarian Universalist community on the spiritual costs that racism has for white folks

White Fragility - a somatic approach to antidotes to white fragility

Conversations from the Heart - practicing difficult conversations about race

V.O.T.E - specifically for elected officials based on a framework of Values, Observe, Trust, Empathy, to develop an anti-racist perspective

Racism and Allyship in 2020

Racism and Allyship During a Pandemic

Community Discussions - Defund the Police

Study and Action - a series combining a deep dive into readings, discussion and collective action around anti-racism